This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low cost, short-weight, adulterated powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall Street New York.

Mat. McCabe, of New Brunswick, Ill., offers to pay five dollars to any person troubled with bloody flux, who will take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions and does not get well in the shortest possible time. One half of a 25 cent bottle of this remedy cured him of bloody flux, after he tried other medicines and the prescriptions of physicians without benefit. Mr. McCabe is perfectly safe in making this offer, as more than a thousand bottles of this remedy are sold each day and it has never been known to fail in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery, diarrhoea or bloody flux, when the plain printed directions were followed. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

FOR SALE: Eight head of cows and heifers of fine breed, also one Jersey cow with calf. Apply at this office or to J. T. Savage, V. & T. R. R. j 22 1w allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Families not already supplied should lose no time in procuring a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaint in all its forms. 25 and 50 cents bottles for sale by G. C. Thaxter.

A Southern merchant had a chance the other day to find the first cause of an accident that happened in his store. A rattlesnake frightened a cat, that scared a hen, that knocked a jar of jam from a shelf, which hit the faucet of a barrel of molasses, which turned the faucet, and spilling a barrel of molasses.

People in general should know what's best to do in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. It is a well established fact that prompt relief may be had in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery or diarrhoea by giving a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It acts quickly, can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Mantell.

The great romantic actor, Robert Mantell, will present his successful heroic drama "Monbars" at the Carson Opera House on Tuesday evening next and theatre-goers who can enjoy and appreciate acting of a high order, should not fail to attend. The Cincinnati Times-Star says:

Mr. Mantell has in the character of "Monbars" opportunities for the display of all his eminent abilities. As the lover he is tender and soulful, as the suspicious husband he is as ferocious as an animal. Intellectuality is shown in all his impersonations, an intelligent understanding of the motives, the loves and hatred of the privateersman, who is more than a legitimized corsair, who stands forth a gentleman by nature, a self-made man as he puts it. A page might be written upon the ever changing phases of the portraiture of this magnetic man who wields such an absolute power over his auditors, but that cannot be now. In "Monbars" Mantell is seen at his best. In the first act he appears as the manly beauty. He is a splendid looking fellow, a perfect man, of imposing stature and mien. Afterwards the prettiness is laid aside and the actor is seen as the rough-featured man in whom the evidences of mental suffering are depicted. We have not before witnessed this manner of make-up in Mantell. He is as striking as the plainly attired hero as the more captivating gentleman of gorgeous attire.

This is the latest in the way of a prehistoric find in Nebraska: The petrified arm of a prehistoric giant was unearthed recently on the farm of J. R. Male, near Kearney Nebraska. Mr. Male will exhume the remainder of the giant's body.

This is a phrase in very frequent use, employed to signify a superfluity of any thing. We use it here in reference to the large stock of shoes, groceries, dry goods etc., carried by Olcovich Bros. Bargains in shoes, await the early customer. The stock is complete in every style of desirable foot gear. Come early and often. 20 tf.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

It is said King Kalakua, of the Sandwich Islands, has raked up money enough to take him to Paris, and that he is about to sail. Ordinarily we should dislike to see the King take his money to Paris, but at the present time, we understand, many of our most enterprising American poker players are sojourning at the French capital, so the balance of the trade may, after all, be in our favor.
